

HARRY BLEVINS, JR.
OCTOBER 11, 1921—JULY 15, 2017

Harry Blevins, Jr., 95, of Clute, Texas, passed away on Saturday, July 15, 2017.

Harry was a resident of Clute, Texas since 1952. He retired from Dow Chemical after 40 years and retired from Brazoria County Precinct 1 after 14 years.

Harry umpired youth baseball and softball games for 40 years, officiating many Babe Ruth League games in Brazoria County. He was inducted into the Texas Hall of Honor for Umpires.

Harry served his country in the United Navy during WWII. He was a lifetime member of the American Legion and the Veteran's of Foreign Wars. Harry served on the Clute City Council for 10 years and was named Brazoria County Citizen of the Year in August 1999.

Many people described Harry as a caring individual who had a heart of gold.

Harry is survived by his wife Vangie, five children, six grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

